English

In English we will be creating a non-chronological report on Isambard Brunel who was a well known engineer. We will explore his pioneering work in the design and the construction of the Thames Tunnel. Our writing will include features such as headings and sub-headings.

Maths

In Maths we will move on to looking at amounts of money the week after half term. We will learn to recognise the different coins and make different amounts with them. We will be solving word problems involving money too. Maybe your child can practise counting with some coins during half term? Or pay for something in cash at the shops together?

Word of the Week: Amount

Topic

In Topic next week we will be learning all about food chains and using purplemash to create our own. We will be developing our geography skills by locating bridges on maps by using a grid.
