Read, Write, Inc Meet 'Fred'

Fred speaks using 'Fred Talk' where he will only say the sounds. This supports children to orally blend sounds into whole words.

Understanding of the World

Next week the children will be trying different fruits, as an introduction to their fruit group names. They will discuss likes and dislikes.

Expressive Arts and Design

The children will have the opportunity to access topic related activities on the craft shelf.

Maths

The children will be focussing on numbers 1-5 next week. We will practice 'subitising' an amount. This is when you instantly recall the quantity, without needing to count the objects.

Personal, Social and Emotional Development

Next week the children will join a live SCARF session on Zoom. This will be an introduction to their unit, 'Happy Healthy Me'. The children will be introduced to Harold.

Physical Development

The children will begin their first PE unit. They will practice undressing and dressing themselves independently.

Do you want to be friends?

Literacy

The children will begin practising to write their names.

We will be reading the story 'Handa's Surprise' next week.

Communication and Language

The children will be introduced to their first Topic, 'Do you want to be friends?' They will be discussing what a friend is and we will think of ways to make friends.
