Notice board

DATES/REMINDERS

- Our end of topic celebration is on the 27th March 2024 at 14:30- 15:00. We welcome you to have a peek at what we have been learning this term.
- PE – Now the weather seems to be getting slightly better (fingers crossed!) we would like to be able to take the children outside for PE when possible. Can you please ensure your child has trainers or plimsolls in their PE kit after the Easter holidays?
- A reminder that parents evenings are on: 19/3/24 and 21/3/24.

Art Assembly

We've had a splendid art assembly which showed Marcel's pieces of art. If you would like your child to have a go with the art activity he shared with us please follow the link below:

English

For English next week we will focus on riddles! What is a riddle? Why doesn't it have a title? Which interesting openers can we use instead of I am, I am? We will try and solve riddles and will work towards writing our own riddles!

Word of the week:

Riddle

Maths

In Maths next week we will continue with multiplication. We will be focusing on problem solving using word problems and bar models. We will also look at problems with measures and money.

Word of the week:

problem

Topic

Next week in topic we will be carrying on with more science experiments to do with bubbles! We will also find out more about Lowry. We will be using water colours and thinking about perspective.

Word of the week:

perspective

Home Learning Tasks

Spellings: Next week our focus is on using an apostrophe for belonging: the cat's food, the dog's collar, Jim's lunch.

Maths challenges: There are a lot of fun multiplication games online:

Talk Task: As you walk outside can you spot the signs of spring and think of adjectives and adverbs to describe the things you see or hear. Use your senses to help you!

Topic: Why not try some mindful process art at home –

1. Choose a medium like crayons, pencils or paint
2. Put some music on to listen to
3. As you listen to the music begin to draw or paint on the paper.
4. It can just be patterns or lines and shapes rather than a finished picture.
